

Subject: Youth Farm Stand Project Coordinator Needed for LTBB

Michigan State University Extension is hiring a part-time youth coordinator through the Federally Recognized Tribal Extension Program to provide dynamic leadership to the Little Traverse Bay Band of Odawa Indians' Tribal Youth Farm Stand Project.

The Youth Farm Stand Project is a program in which middle and high school aged youth have the opportunity to be food entrepreneurs, marketing fresh healthy foods to their community. This is a part time seasonal position, 20hrs a week from April 1, 2016 – October 31, 2016.

The ideal candidate for this position will possess the following qualities:

- A high level of Anishinaabe cultural proficiency
- Flexibility, desire to learn and openness to new skills
- Availability 20hrs a week from April 1, 2016 – October 31, 2016, and ability to accommodate a flexible schedule, including evenings and weekends
- Enthusiasm for working with young people, and demonstrate an ability to connect with youth and support positive youth development
- Organizational and communication skills to coordinate effectively between various tribal departments, councils, and non-tribal entities
- Must have some gardening knowledge
- Able to meet physical demands involved in the job – including gardening and transporting food to markets
- Self-motivation and independence a definite plus!
- Must pass required federal background check
- Valid Drivers license, chauffeurs license preferred

If you meet the necessary qualifications described above and would like to apply, please send (or email) your resume and a cover letter explaining why you think you would be a good candidate for this position to either:

Kat O'Donnell, MSUE Extension FRTEP Instructor
odonne94@msu.edu
MSU Extension
12214 W Lakeshore Dr, Brimley, MI 49715

Regina Brubacker-Carver, LTBB Health Educator
RBrubacker@LTBBODAWA-NSN.GOV
7500 Odawa Circle, Harbor Springs, MI 49740

If you have questions, please contact:

Kat O'Donnell, MSUE Extension FRTEP Instructor
odonne94@msu.edu
(906) 280-1786